Reading

Next week we will be starting our new story Swoop Flies South. We will be defining any new vocabulary and using it in our discussion about the story.

We will also be thinking about events in the story and what order these happen in.

Topic

Art: Shhh! It's a surprise!

Computing: We will be editing our animated stories and adding any new sounds or animations..

Science: Next week we will be thinking about the structure different types of plants

PE: We will be continuing our new units, gymnastics and sending and receiving.

History: In History this term we will be thinking about Queen Victoria and her reign. We will begin this next week by finding out some special facts all about her.

Additional notes and reminders

Request: In the morning please encourage the children to stand with you or their friends. We have noticed that some children are swinging on the rails, knocking on the windows or going on to the field. All children should be waiting with you as we are not able to supervise until we open the doors.

Homework: Please revise the phonics sheet sent out.

Naming uniform/ resources: Please ensure your child's things are named so we can easily identify any lost item's owners.

Just a reminder that hedgehogs and Squirrels now have library on a Friday.

If you are running late and arrive at school past 9:00 am please ensure you sign in at the office.

Upcoming dates

W/B 13.03.23 Deaf Awareness Week/ Science Week

17.03.23 Comic Relief - We are inviting the children to wear something red or from this year's comic relief collection. If at all possible please encourage your child to keep their red nose at home. Please ensure if it does come to school it is named.

24.03.23 World Poetry Day Celebration

Please note that as the week progresses it is sometimes necessary to change what is planned to meet the learning needs of the children and therefore changes to the above may occur.
