BREAK THE RULES DAY!

Breaking the rules has never been so good! Friday 27th May 2022 is Break the Rules Day at The Mead. What a way to end the half term.

Please pay 50p per rule your child/children break and you'll help raise funds for the school to refurbish the library. More details on this to follow soon.

Things you can do to Break the Rules

1. Have silly hair or wear a hat
2. Wear your own clothes (NO ONESIES)
3. Have a temporary tattoo
4. Have squash or juice in your water bottle (NO FIZZY DRINKS)
5. Wear nail varnish
6. Wear bright socks or tights

For those children who have PE on a Friday, please ensure that whatever they wear is suitable for their PE lesson.

We are aware that Reception have their Bug Ball this day but they can of course join in still with breaking the rules.

Parents will be in the playground to collect your cash donations but we now also have an online shop where you can make payments should you not have cash. There are a list of rules in the shop and you can add as many as you like to your basket. Don't forget to double/triple etc up if you have more than one child at the school.
