

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are very much looking forward to celebrating World Book Day with the children. On this day the children are invited to come to school dressed as something inspired by a book they love, linked to this year's theme, “Go All In”.

Costumes can be as simple or as creative as you wish—there is absolutely no expectation for anything elaborate..

- a character from a story
- an object from a book (for example a hat from Elmer, a stick from Stick Man or a sandwich from The Tiger Who Came to Tea)
- an animal from a story
- a superhero from a comic
- a footballer from a football annual
- something from a non-fiction book (such as a dinosaur or firefighter)

Homemade ideas are also more than welcome.

On the same day we have also arranged a very special visit for the children.

Two authors will be joining us to share their books, talk about their stories, and lead some fun, hands-on activities.

This will be a wonderful opportunity to inspire a love of reading and storytelling, and we are very much looking forward to the experience.

At the end of the school day, the authors will be in the main reception area with copies of their books available to purchase and have signed.

We're excited to share this special day with the children and to celebrate their love of stories.

Kind regards,
Miss Akrimi
